Sheffield Olympic Legacy Park Stadium

Inspirational interiors for award-winning stadium

Issue

Sheffield Olympic Legacy Park Stadium was created after a collaboration of key institutions decided to deliver an Olympic legacy through the four themes of sport, community, environment and economy. The park has an ethos to achieve physical and mental health and wellbeing by providing world-class facilities for community sports, from grassroots up to elite levels.

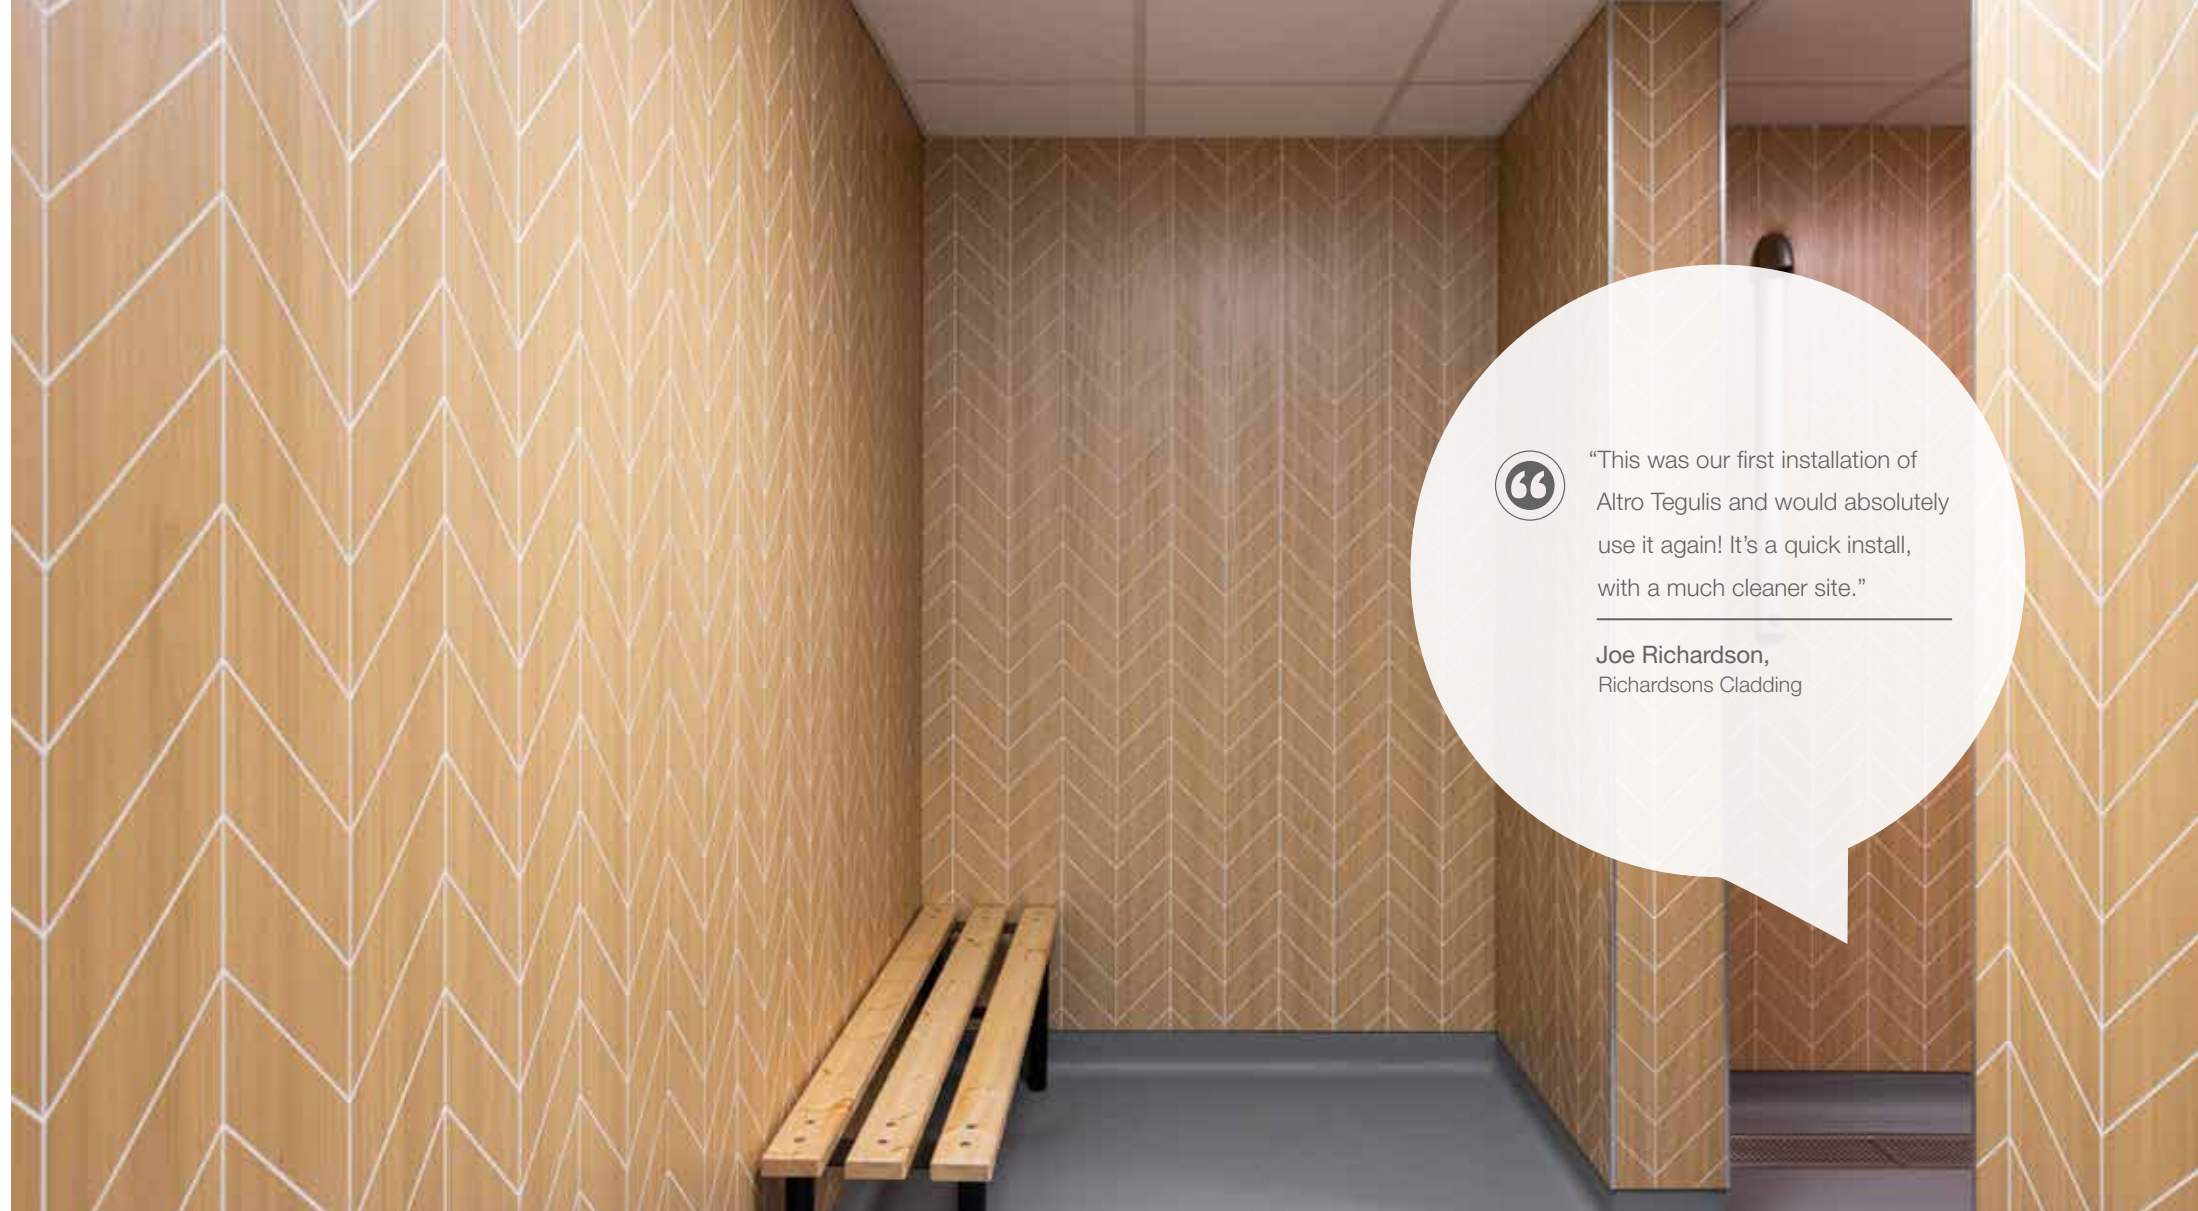

Approach

With the need to provide inspirational interiors for aspiring Olympians, Alex Parojcic, Architect at Whittam Cox knew that a high-end design, complemented by technical performance and ease of maintenance was required for the new changing areas, showers and physiotherapy suite. "Ceramic tiles had originally been specified for the showers and changing rooms, but we switched to Altro Tegulis when we realised the installation would be quicker, give a fantastic look and feel to the areas, and provide the cleanliness and hygiene standards required for such busy areas."

Joe Richardson of Richardsons Cladding who completed the installation, added "Altro Tegulis was a quick and easy install which assisted with the contractor's tight programme. If this had been done in the ceramic tiles it would have impacted the programme massively."

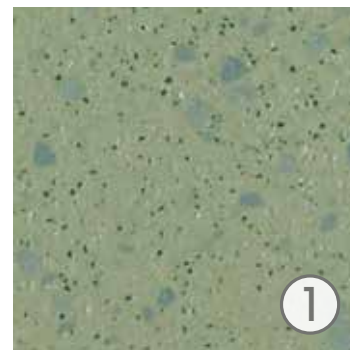

Solution

Altro Tegulis, partnered by Altro Aquarius were specified for the showers, providing safety from slips in shoes and barefoot. For the changing rooms, where traffic from football studs, sports shoe spikes and bumps/knocks from sports bags and equipment would be experienced, Altro Atlas 40 was specified. Altro Wood provided a less clinical finish in the physiotherapy suite.

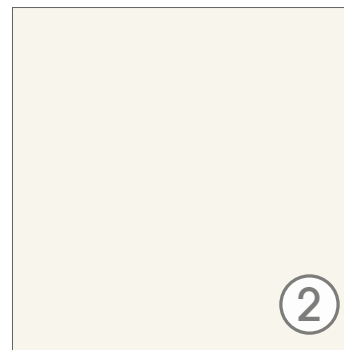

"This was our first installation of Altro Tegulis and would absolutely use it again! It's a quick install, with a much cleaner site."

Joe Richardson,
Richardsons Cladding
