Skyline Kridtsløjfen Aalborg, Denmark

Stylish interiors created for modern apartments

Issue

KD Boliger are building new homes in desirable areas within the town of Aalborg, Denmark, including the Skyline Kridtsløjfen project. The homes vary from small New York style apartments to top floor, modern penthouses. Jonas Dinesen Jensen, CEO of KD Boliger, wished to improve the quality of the interior design and provide a luxury feel to each apartment.

Approach

Understanding the requirement for high-end, luxury touches in all 95 apartments, flooring company Total Gulve Aalborg recommended Altro Ensemble modular flooring to KD Boliger.

"I love the surface texture of the floor. Altro Ensemble is also easy to work with and the only product that is not 'rubbery'. Plus, it's comfortable to walk on." Jonas Dinesen Jensen, CEO of KD Boliger.

Solution

Altro Ensemble in the colours Village Oak and Greige Striking Oak were installed providing the apartments with a consistent, wood design effect. The floor comes in wood-look, stone-look, and one-colour designs. Altro Ensemble is available in many design options and variations.

"The floors were easy to install, even when you only use one person for the job. Altro Ensemble is a great product to work with and installation is simpler as it is easier to cut than other flooring products we have used," commented Henrik Jacobsen, of Total Gulve Aalborg.

"We've had positive feedback from the 35 homes where people have moved in. The floors are nice, good quality, and the residents are very satisfied," said Jonas Dinesen Jensen, CEO of KD Boliger.

"Our team have been working with Altro products for many years and would definitely use and recommend Altro Ensemble again."

Henrik Jacobsen,
Total Gulve Aalborg.
